JOHN P. DIAL JOINS
RESEARCH REALTY SERVICES

A native of Chicago and graduate of Loyola University, John has over 25 years experience in marketing and advertising, some of which geared toward the real estate industry.

During the last four years John has worked for Coldwell Banker specializing in residential real estate in Sarasota County. He knows that buying and/or selling real estate is one of the most important decisions facing individuals and families. This blend of marketing/advertising and real estate agent is unique...the result...John is ready and prepared to market and advertise your property, thereby exposing it to the largest number of potential buyers/sellers.

Buying/selling real estate is laden with tedious chores and details...enter the stress factor. John's career history has armed him with the ability to deal with this for buyers/sellers thereby managing the transaction from start to finish.

These are challenging times. John and Research Realty Services will help you achieve success with minimum risk.

Because—Taking Care Of Buyers/Sellers IS Taking Care Of Business
